

Mary (dau of Thomas "Chickahominy") WATKINS & Descendants

First Generation

1. Mary (dau of Thomas "Chickahominy") WATKINS was born about 1742. She died Mar 1791.

Mary Watkins married Stephen Pankey Jr. (c.1742- Mar. 1791) of "Lucy Springs," Chesterfield County. Pankey represented Chesterfield County at the Convention of 1788.

"A CATALOGUE of the Descendants of THOMAS WATKINS of Chickahominy, VA. Who was the Common Ancestor of Many of the Families of the Name in Prince Edward, Charlotte, and Chesterfield Counties, VA.", by Francis N. Watkins, (Written 1852) Prince Edward County, VA." 1899 Atlas Printing Company, Henderson, SC.

"VIII. MARY WATKINS, another daughter, married Mr. Stephen PANKEY, an Inspector of Tobacco at Manchester. They died before most of the generation was born, and I learned but few particulars of them. They were noted for their affectionate regard to Mrs. Pankey's relations; and Mr. Pankey enjoyed in an eminent degree, the respect and confidence of the public. Their descendants reside mainly in Arkansas, where they lead useful and honorable lives, some of them having rendered efficient and valued service to their Commonwealth."

Children of Mary Watkins and Stephen Pankey, Jr. are:

6. Elizabeth PANKEY (Mary (dau of Thomas "Chickahominy")) was born about 1777 in Lucy's Springs, Chesterfield Co., VA. She died 1815 in near Meherrin, Prince Edward County, VA.

Elizabeth Pankey married Thomas Walton (13 Feb. 1775 -1817) of Prince Edward County 6 October (bond) 1796 in Chesterfield County. They were members of Briery Presbyterian Church, Prince Edward County, where the births and baptisms of seven children are recorded.

Thomas Walton was born on Feb. 13, 1775 and died in Prince Edward County in 1817. He married Elizabeth Pankey on Oct. 6, 1796. She was born in 1777 in Chesterfield County and died in Prince Edward County in 1815. They had seven children, and were owners of 24 slaves. Nathaniel Jackson, brother-in-law, was administrator for the estate of Thomas Walton. It is believed that Thomas lived on the plantation estate of his father.

"Descendants of Stephen Pankey, Sr." (of Manakin Town, VA)...provided by Eugenia Richards.

Thomas and Elizabeth's "marriage bond names Judith Pankey as witness, Benjamin Elliott as surety, and Mary Pankey as Elizabeth's mother. Issue..." were all born near Meherrin, Prince Edward County, VA.

"Briery Presbyterian Church is near the Thomas Walton home site in Prince Edward County. Its records state that Elizabeth, wife of Thomas Walton, became a member 3 March 1810 and died in 1815 and that George Walton, father of Thomas, was one of its trustees, a ruling elder, and in 1766 headed the list of subscribers to "a permanent fund for the support of the Gospel." This quaint church, founded about 1744, still stands (see 'Briery Church Manual' by James W. Douglas, Dec., 1828).

Children of Elizabeth Pankey and Thomas Walton are:

- i. Robert Walton, born January 20, 1798
- ii. George Walton born September 27, 1800
- iii. Thomas Scott Walton born May 10, 1802
- iv. Mary Watkins Walton, born December 01, 1803 in Meherrin, Va;
- v. Martha Hughes Walton, born August 15, 1805 in Meherrin, Va; died June 02, 1825 in Meherrin, Va.
- vi. Elizabeth Ann Walton born May 21, 1808
- vii. Catherine Frances Walton born May 29, 1810

Elizabeth married Thomas (son of Uncle George) WALTON, son of George (Uncle George) WALTON and Martha HUGHES, on 6 Oct 1796 in Chesterfield County, VA. Thomas was born 13 Feb 1775 in Prince Edward County, VA. He died 1815/1817.

"Descendants of Stephen Pankey, Sr." "Thomas Walton was a son of George Walton, b 17 Feb 1724/24; died Prince Edward County, July 1797; married Cumberland County 14 August 1749, Martha Hughes, b 25 Nov. 1734."

"An appraisal of Thomas Walton's estate was made 25 February 1817 by his brother-in-law Nathaniel Jackson and others and recorded in Prince Edward County 17 August 1818. (Bk 5, pp. 346-7) The settlement of Thomas Walton's estate by Asa Dupuy, administrator, included payment to Nathaniel Jackson and others for the hire of wagons to return his slaves from KY, where before his death he had begun farming operations. Records of his estate mention records of his mother's estate and definitely identify him.

"The 1810 Census of Prince Edward County, VA lists in Thomas Walton's family one male under age 10; two age 10-16, and one age 26-45; four females under age 10, one age 16-26 (probably his wife's sister), and one age 26-45; and twenty four slaves. Apparently this census includes Thomas Walton's seven children, his wife, and her sister. In 1817 the children were all minors when they were left without parents or grandparents."

They had the following children:

- 25 M i. Robert WALTON¹ was born 20 Jun 1798 and was christened 3 Mar 1810. He died 1820/1842 in probably Goochland Co., VA.

"Descendants of Stephen Pankey, Sr." "On 17 Sept. 1813 his grandmother Martha Walton named him in her will. (Prince Edward Co. Court Wills, Bk 1, p. 55). On 10 June 1817 a suit involving the estate of Martha Walton, entitled Knight vs Yarborough, was tried in the Superior Court of Chancery. On 13 June 1820 the Court of Appeals reversed the lower court decision, after which the plaintiff filed with the Court a Supplemental Bill in which he stated that Thomas Walton died after his mother Martha had died and that his children were ROBERT of Goochland Co., GEORGE of Prince Edward County., but of full age, and MARY, MARTHA, ELIZABETH and THOMAS, minors.

"In Oct 1842, Francis N. Watkins (writer of the Watkins Catalogue), administrator of the estate of Martha Pankey, deceased, sister of Elizabeth Walton, filed a settlement suit in the Superior Court of Prince Edward County, in which he named as children of Thomas and Elizabeth (Pankey) Walton: GEORGE, THOMAS, MARY, the wife of Paul Jones, and "others whose names are unknown." (p 184). The absence of Robert's name from this list suggests that he had died or moved some distance away. Records of Briery Presbyterian Church, which was near the Walton home, state that Robert Walton was received as a member in 1814 and left the church in 1814."

- 26 M ii. George (son of Thomas/gson Geo) WALTON was born 27 Sep 1799 and was christened 3 Mar 1810.
27 M iii. Thomas Scott WALTON¹ was born 10 May 1802 and was christened 3 Mar 1810. He died after 1842.
+ 28 F iv. Mary Watkins (dau of Thomas) WALTON was born 1 Dec 1803 and died 1842/1854.
+ 29 F v. Martha Hughes (dau of Thomas) WALTON was born 15 Aug 1805 and died 2 Jun 1825.
30 F vi. Elizabeth Ann (dau of Thomas) WALTON¹ was born 21 May 1808. She died after 1830.

"Descendants of Stephen Pankey, Sr." Elizabeth Ann, b 21 May 1808, died after 1830; married William Bailey. On 15 May 1830 he signed a statement authorizing George Walton to collect his wife's share of her father's estate. On 1 July 1830 George Walton signed a receipt for nine hundred dollards "on account of the distributable portion of William Bailey in right of his wife Elizabeth" received from the estate of Thomas Walton, deceased. No issue."

Elizabeth married William BAILEY.

- 31 F vii. Catherine Frances WALTON was born 29 May 1810 and was christened 3 Nov 1810. She died 1817/1825.

"Descendants of Stephen Pankey, Sr." Catherine Frances..."on 17 Sept 1813 she was named in the will of her grandmother Martha Walton. On 10 June 1817 she was listed among the children of Thomas Walton, deceased, in the suit entitled Knight vs Yarborough in the VA Superior Court of Chancery. When this suit was settled during the early 1820's, her name had been dropped from the list of Thomas Walton's children. There is a tradition in the family that she died as a child."

7. Judith PANKEY (Mary (dau of Thomas "Chickahominy")) was born 1779. She died 24 Mar 1803.

- i. Phineas Pankey Nash, born August 01, 1799; died March 17, 1846 in Spring Hill, Ark.
- ii. John Stephen Nash
- iii. Martha Nash

(6 others on the page, living at the hotel, as well)

1860, you'll find Paul Jones living in Obion Co., TN with his 2nd wife who was born in VA and their little child Lizzie and, I believe, Paul Jones Jr. Paul Jones was listed as a miller. His son Warner and family were living next door and Warner was a lawyer.

1870 census, Atlanta, Paul Jones wholesale Liquor Dealer was living with his second wife Lavinia Cary Pankey Jones (listed as L.C. Jones) and their daughter Lizzie who later married Johnson. Also living in the family are Paul Jones' three grandsons Warner P., Saunders P., and Lawrence Lavelle Jones children of Paul's deceased son Col. Warner P.R. Jones who died in 1864. I don't know what happened to Warner's wife. Also living in the family was Jose (Josephine) Ballard (although you can't really read her name) and her son Blair. Also living with the family in 1870 was Paul Jones Jr.

b. Campbell Co., Va 22 Mar. 1801; d. Atlanta, GA 3 Apr. 1877

married: Mary Watkins Walton AND Lavinia Cary Pankey m. Campbell Co., Va 15 Aug 1854

Paul was the son of Roland and Nancy Crawford Jones. He lived across the James River from Lynchburg, VA, in Campbell Co., where he operated a stage coach business. It's said because of costly accidents he sold this business and in 1858 moved to Madrid Bend, Tenn. where he engaged in a logging business. Later he moved to Alabama. In 1865 he moved again to Atlanta, Georgia where he built a successful distillery business, which his descendants moved to Louisville, KY and enlarged. Also have info on his children. Please email me with further questions or info."

(2005) Eugenia Richards shared a family letter whereby Dr. Thomas A. Watkins mentions visiting with the Jones family, in 1875 and again in 1887.

Dr. T.A. mentioned Mrs. Jones in a letter to Mollie McLemore (his daughter) saying on August 15, 1875 "I meet here many of the descendants of my old friends. I have visited here a Mrs. Jones who is a granddaughter of Mary Watkins and who is of our blood. She is a very fine woman."

On August 16, 1887, Dr. Watkins wrote his daughter Lettie Walton, "I have found in this place a Mrs. Jones who is a descendant of Thos. Watkins of Chickahominy. Her grandmother was Mary Watkins who was an Aunt of my Father. She, Mrs. Jones is a nice lady and has a beautiful and intelligent daughter of seventeen summers."

They had the following children:

- + 42 M i. Col. Warner P. Roland JONES C.S.A. was born 20 Oct 1829 and died 30 Jun 1864.
- + 43 F ii. Sally Betts JONES was born 8 Sep 1836.

"The Descendants of Stephen Pankey, Sr." "In a letter dated 5 April 1894 from H. H. FARMER, of Anthoston, Henderson County, KY, to his first cousin, Mrs. Josephine JONES Ballard, includes the following:

"You derive your claim to be a Daughter of the Revolution through our grandmother Walton, the daughter of Stephen Pankey.....and Mary Watkins, the daughter of Thomas Watkins..... Our Grandfather Walton was a boy during the War. His name was Thomas Walton. His brother Jesse was a Colonel in the Army. His father George Walton was a man of wealth whose wife, nee Martha Hughes, a [grand] daughter of Jesse Hughes and sister of Temperance Hughes who married Henry Watkins of teh Catalogue, was noted for her patriotism. George Walton of Georgia was a nephew of this George Walton and being an orphan and poor, was assisted by him in obtaining an education. These things I learned from Uncle George Walton..... The Betsey Pankey mentioned was our grandmother married to Thomas Walton. She left six children, not seven: Robert, George, Thomas, Mary, Martha Hughes, my mother, and Elizabeth who married William Bailey and died leaving no children."

33rd TENNESSEE INFANTRY REGIMENT

Organized October 18, 1861; reorganized May 8, 1862; merged into 3rd Consolidated Tennessee Infantry Regiment April 9, 1865; paroled at Greensboro, North Carolina, May 1, 1865.

FIELD OFFICERS

Colonels-Alex W. Campbell, Jones, Robert N. Payne
Lieutenant Colonels-Warner P. JONES, Henry C. McNeill
Majors-Henry C. McNeill, Robert N. Payne

At the reorganization of the regiment in May, 1862, Warner P. Jones became colonel; H. C. McNeill lieutenant colonel; and R. N. Payne major. Colonel Jones was killed June 30, 1864, and Lieutenant Colonel McNeill was killed July 22, 1864. Upon the death of these two senior officers, Major R. N. Payne was promoted to colonel.

33rd Regiment, Tennessee Infantry

33rd Infantry Regiment was formed in October, 1861, near Union City, Tennessee. The men were recruited in the counties of Obion, Madison, Lake, Hardeman, and Weakley. Company C contained men from Calloway County, Kentucky. It fought at Shiloh and Perryville, then was stationed at Shelbyville for a few months. The unit served under Generals Stewart, Strahl, and Palmer, and in December, 1862, was consolidated with the 31st Regiment. It participated in many battles of the Army of Tennessee from Murfreesboro to Atlanta, moved back to Tennessee with Hood, and was active in North Carolina. This regiment lost 20 killed, 103 wounded, and 17 missing at Shiloh and reported 33 casualties at Perryville. The 31st/33rd lost twenty-three percent of the 379 engaged at Murfreesboro, then the 33rd had 24 disabled at Missionary Ridge and totalled 124 men and 69 arms in December, 1863. It surrendered in April, 1865. The field officers were Colonels Alexander W. Campbell, Warner P. JONES, and Robert N. Payne, and Lieutenant Colonel Henry C. McNeill.

Family letter provided by Eugenia Richards: Feb. 20, 1878, Atlanta, GA, Josephine Ballard to Dr. T.A. Watkins in Austin, TX

Dr. Thos. Watkins, Dear Cousin,

I take the liberty of sending you some of my school circulars for distribution in your state. They will sufficiently explain themselves. I am anxious to get scholars from Texas and my thoughts turned to you as the kind friend on whom I could rely to send them through that state. Your niece, Miss Kate Hillyer, is now associated with me in my school. The connection was made after the circulars were issued is why her name is not on them. I find her a most efficient teacher and charming associate.

I often see your sister Mrs. Todd. I love her very much. The ties of blood are at all times strong with me but particularly so as I am a stranger in this state. Since you were here, I have had the great misfortune to lose my father. He died after months of suffering with dropsy of the heart. We are now a scattered flock. My little sister, Lizzie, is married and housekeeping. Her mother lives with her. They are nicely fixed and she is quite an enthusiast on the subject of domestic economy.

I am housekeeping. I have a little niece with me and, also my son, who is now seventeen years old. I have a large, comfortable house and a good school. I am making an effort to convert it into a boarding school for young ladies and little girls. Next summer I shall advertise quite extensively in your state as well as throughout the South.

I hope one of these days to see you in Georgia again. We often speak of you and recall your visit with pleasure. Again, apologizing for the trouble I am imposing you, Believe me, Your affectionate cousin, Josephine Ballard

In 1880, Josephine, Josie, Jones Ballard and son Blair were still living in Atlanta and she had started a school and she was a teacher and several other teachers were living in her household. One of them was -- Kate Hillyer -- daughter of Aunt Jane and Uncle Junius Hillyer.
